POSITION SUMMARY

Cortex believes that to meet its mission of accelerating inclusive economic growth in St. Louis, our team must be committed to working through our organizational values, continuously learning and supporting one another. As we continue to grow, we are seeking a dynamic and experienced Vice President of Organizational Effectiveness to join our leadership team and drive our human resources and organizational development initiatives. This new position is a full-time, salaried position with benefits.

The Vice President of Organizational Effectiveness will lead and manage all aspects of human resources and organizational culture and effectiveness. This role will be instrumental in shaping the work environment, building on a strong foundation of employee engagement, and ensuring we have the correct systems and evaluation strategies to implement our strategic plan. The ideal candidate will be a dynamic strategic thinker with a passion for people, is in full alignment with accelerating inclusive economic growth in St Louis and demonstrates the ability to foster an inclusive and innovative workplace that ensures all employees can succeed in their roles.

Since 2021, Cortex has significantly transformed its approach and systems related to human resources; organizational diversity, inclusion and equity; professional development; internal technology and evaluation. While those systems have been built, or are in the process of being built, Cortex is looking for someone who can formalize a human resources function while ensuring the full integration of all systems necessary to support the team.
